Mosaic's Joyce Gorgan Promoted to Managing Director of Mosaic Houston Office

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Renton, WA – February 22, 2016 – Joyce Gorgan, a senior consultant at Mosaic—a national training and workforce consulting firm that focuses on the utility and oil & gas industries—has been promoted to Managing Director for Mosaic's Houston office, announced CEO Megan Deans today.

Over the past five years, Mosaic has established a strong client base in Texas and surrounding states. The regional Houston office allows Mosaic to provide a higher level of customer service for these clients, and to extend its services to other companies in the Energy sector.

I am excited to have Joyce lead and expand our footprint in the Houston market," said Deans. "Joyce brings deep passion and experience to this role, and I am confident she will serve our clients, employees and new community well."

Gorgan has 14 years of experience in program management and training program development. She has provided pivotal work with Mosaic clients such as Pacific Gas & Electric, DTE Energy, TXU Energy, and Hawaiian Electric Company (HECO). Most recently, Gorgan led the Curriculum Development team for the Gas Operations Training Program at PG&E, one of Mosaic's largest clients.
